The Connecticut Water Works Association (CWAA) is an organization of public water supply utilities that work together to develop meaningful policies to ensure a safe, high quality supply of water for our customers and a regulatory environment in which we can operate effectively. Membership in CWAA is open to all Connecticut water utilities: investor owned municipal and regional water utilities. Businesses engaged in or associated with the manufacture, distribution or sale of products or professionals services used by the water and wastewater industry may join as CWWA Supporters.

• Your Voice at the State Capitol
CWWA is a strong voice at the state Capitol on issues affecting the water industry. We review every bill and amendment, testify on key issues before legislative committees, and communicate with lawmakers and agency officials to represent the interests of public water suppliers. As a member or supporter, you have the opportunity to join our legislative committee and help shape state laws and policies affecting public water supplies.

• Representing Your Interests in Regulatory Issues
CWWA is at the table on a regular basis, negotiating changes in policies with various agencies and stakeholders. We strive to shape policies in ways that will protect public water supplies and ensure that water utilities can continue to provide customers with safe, quality water at a reasonable cost.

• Critical Compliance Assistance
CWWA provides members and supporters with information on new and emerging laws and regulations to help keep you in compliance.

• Key Networking Opportunities
CWWA members and supporters receive numerous opportunities to network with their colleagues, exchange ideas and keep on top of what is happening in the water industry.

• Events to Showcase Your Products & Services
CWWA members and supporters receive discounted rates on conference/exhibitor registrations to let you showcase your products and services to key decision-makers in the industry.
